

It is against the law for this recipient of Federal financial assistance to discriminate on the following bases:

- Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, national origin, color, religion, sex, age, disability, political affiliation or belief; and
- Against any beneficiary of programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA)/Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 (WIOA) on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship/status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or his or her participation in any WIA/WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity.

This recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas:

- Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIA/WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity;
- Providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or
- Making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

What to Do If You Believe You Have Experienced Discrimination

If you think you have been subjected to discrimination under a WIA/WIOA Title I financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either:

- The recipient's Equal Opportunity Officer (or the person whom the recipient has designated for this purpose); or

- The Director, The Civil Rights Center (CRC), U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Room N-4123, Washington DC 20210. Or Fax 202-693-6505 ATTENTION: Office of External Enforcement, Email: CRCExternalComplaints@dol.gov, Telephone: 202-693-6502, URL: www.dol.gov/oasam/programs/crc/

If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait either until the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action, or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the Civil Rights Center (see address above).

If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you do not have to wait for the recipient to issue that Notice before filing a complaint with CRC. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with CRC. You must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

Please read the Notice below and the Equal Opportunity is the Law Notice on the reverse side. When you finish reading, initial the final two statements, print your name, sign your name, and date the bottom of this form.

When you receive services from state or federally funded programs, we will ask you for information about yourself. The data we are asking you to provide about yourself is considered private data by Minnesota Statute 13.47 subdivision 2. In order to collect and use this data we must tell you why we need the data, how we intend to use it, and any outcomes you may experience if you supply the information or not. You may refuse to supply any or all of this information. You are not legally required to provide information about yourself. However, if you do not supply sufficient information about yourself, it may limit our ability to provide services to you. Your information may be shared with other government entities who have a legal right to this data including the U.S. Department of Labor, the Office of Higher Education, the Office of the Legislative Auditor, the State Auditor, employment and training service providers, and welfare agencies. Your information may also be shared by court order. For more information about DEED Data Practices, visit <http://mn.gov/deed/about/what-guides-us/privacy>.

Types of personal information you might be asked to provide and why we need it:

- Social Security Number (SSN): Your SSN is requested to identify you as a unique individual, to find wage data, and to help us evaluate the performance of our programs;
- Name, address, birth date, and contact information: This is used to identify and contact you and to evaluate our performance;
- Age, gender, ethnicity, race, disability, and economic status: Demographic information is collected to help determine if you are eligible for additional assistance and to evaluate our performance;
- Veteran status: Veteran status is asked to determine if you are eligible for priority services and to evaluate our performance; and
- Other personal information, such as school records, job skills and work history: Education and work history is used to help plan your employment and training goals and to evaluate our performance.

Information about you will be used to:

- Decide if you are eligible for services, which services you are eligible for, and to coordinate services provided to you;
- Help you obtain employment by sharing work and education history with prospective employers; and
- Improve public services by analyzing data about our performance.

____ I have read the above Notice. I understand that information may be shared with other service provider agencies in accordance with the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act.

____ I have read the Equal Opportunity is the Law Notice (found on the reverse side). I understand that I have the right to file a complaint of discrimination.
